Call to Order @ 4:00 – LMS

In attendance: Margo Tucker, Ann Sicheri, Alice Holzmann, Stefanie Rice, Marie Elliott, Albert Scanlon, Kathy Croft, Jaimie Lolkema, Margaret Romano, Bonnie Leitheuser

4:00-5:15: Break Out Boxes

*Ann shared a list of content area break out box clues on the website with us (hvne.weebly.com).

*The large group split into small groups and experienced many different types of Break Out Boxes as students would in the classroom environment. Some were completely manipulative, and others were online.

5:15-5:30: Processing

*Margaret and Ann led a processing discussion with us regarding...

- troubleshooting techniques (problems with locks, or dealing with student frustrations).
- advantages and disadvantages of digital vs. manual clues
- the importance of having clear objectives
- fast finishers

5:30-5:35: Alice shared some community events and happenings.

5:35-6:15: State Updates

*Marie shared the following...

- If you find that state mandates are impacting FACS teachers, contact the CTE TAG Center/NYSED.
- Best Practices presenters are needed for the June 26-27 NYSACTE AFCSE Conference in Liverpool.
- A board position needs to be filled for FCCLA Liason.
- Peter Carr is looking for FACS advocates at the state level. If you know an advocate in your community, please bring it to his attention.
- The state is looking for feedback regarding new award ideas.
- Buffalo State's FACS program is growing. The graduate program is almost finalized.

Close of meeting @ 6:15.
